

Agenda

International Conference 'Learn Without Fear – Looking at Violence from the Gender Perspective'

Hamburg, 12 – 14 November 2008

Wednesday, 12th of November 2008

12:00-13:00	Registration and Coffee
13:00-13:30	Words of welcome Marianne M. Raven (Germany), Executive Director Plan Germany Prof. Dr Gesine Schwan (Germany), Patron of the Conference Peter Daschner (Germany), Head of the Teacher's Institute Hamburg Dr Paulo Sérgio Pinheiro (Brasil), Former Independent Expert on the UN study 'Violence against Children'
13:30-14:15	Looking at violence in schools from the gender perspective Prof. Fiona Leach (UK) Professor of International Education
14:15-14:30	Discussion
14:30-15:15	How to lobby states to end corporal punishment of girls and boys Peter Newell (UK) Global Initiative to End All Corporal Punishment of Children
15:15-15:30	Discussion
15:30-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-16:45	Plan's advocacy work with children and adolescents from the gender perspective Ann-Kristin Vervik (Norway) Plan International
16:45-17:00	Discussion
17:00-17:30	The international youth project 'Learn Without Fear' Jana Ludwig , Klara Ustorf , Youth representatives (Germany) Katty Nöllenburg (Germany) Institute for the Constructive Management of Conflict and for Mediation (ikm)
17:30-18:00	Opening Poster Session
18:00-19:30	Poster Session and Buffet Presentation of research work, projects and campaigns from Africa, Asia and Europe

Thursday, 13th of November 2008

09:00-09:45	Advocacy work on 'stopping violence against girls in school' Victorine Kemonou Djitrinou (Senegal) International Education Advocacy and Campaign Coordinator, Action Aid
09:45-10:00	Discussion
10:00-10:20	Learn Without Fear - campaign report Cesar Bazan (UK) (tbc) Plan International
10:20-10:40	Violence in school – The Sudan realities and perspectives Naila Abushora Learning Advisor Plan Sudan
10:40-11:00	Discussion
11:00-11.30	Coffee break
11:30-13:00	World Café on good practice a) Prof. Beatrice Okyere (Ghana), Safe Schools Project b) Günter Haverkamp (Germany), Work with violent school boys c) Nada Ignjatovic Savic (Serbia), Non violent communication for teachers d) Nicole Bittkowski (Germany), School concept from Hamburg
13:00-14:30	Lunch
14:30-18:00	Working groups to compile gender-sensitive recommendations for the prevention and intervention of violence in schools. Working Group 1+2: in school interventions: WG 1: What can teachers and school administrations do to prevent violence in schools? Dr Sara Humphreys , University of Sussex WG 2: What can students do to act against violence in schools? Ann-Kristin Vervik , Plan Norway Working Group 3+4: out of school interventions WG 3: What do schools need from the government to prevent violence? Victorine Kemonou Djitrinou , Action Aid WG 4: How can the community and the parents actively support a violence free school? Prof. Fiona Leach , University of Sussex
16:00-16:30	Coffee break (within the working groups)
18:00	Reception

Friday, 14th of November 2008

09:00-09:45	Teachers as positive role models against gender-based violence in schools Dr Sara Humphreys (UK) Visiting Lecturer, Sussex School of Education, University of Sussex
09:45-10:00	Discussion
10:00-11:00	Working groups continued: Finishing the recommendations
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:30	Panel Discussion: Presentation of the results of the working groups
12:30-13:00	Handing over of the recommendations to Carolyn Medel-Añonuevo (Germany), Deputy Director UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning Tom Miller (USA), CEO Plan